ANNUAL TWO-DAY CITY COUNCIL SESSION SET FOR JULY 19 - 20

PORT ST. LUCIE, FLA. – June 21, 2007 – The annual two-day summer retreat meeting of the Port St. Lucie City Council is set for Thursday and Friday, July 19 – 20 in the Community Center on Airoso Boulevard.

The Council meets twice a year in special two-day sessions to hear from city management and department heads about long-term goals and projects, and to evaluate progress made in the previous year. The summer session focuses heavily on budget-related topics in preparation of the up-coming new fiscal year, which begins October 1.

This summer's meeting is of particular importance because of recent changes in the state's property tax laws and their effect on the city's ability to provide services to the public.

The meetings begin at 8:30 a.m. both days. Though the public is welcome to attend, there will be no public comment period like at regular Council meetings.

The meetings from both days will be broadcast on PSL-TV20. The Thursday meeting will air at 8 p.m. Thursday and Friday's meeting will air at 8 p.m. Friday. Both meetings will play again on the weekend and during the following week.
