May 15, 2007

The City of Port St. Lucie's inaugural Hurricane Preparedness Expo will be held at the Port St. Lucie Community Center at 2195 S.E. Airoso Boulevard on Saturday, May 19, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Expo will provide residents with a wealth of information on how to prepare for the upcoming hurricane season and where to get assistance after the storm has passed. The event will feature 21 classroom speakers and an exhibition hall with more than 65 vendors and sponsors.

It will be a family event with a bounce house, double slide, face painting, balloons, music, food, giveaways, and free raffles. Across the street from the Expo the Humane Society and Port St Lucie Animal Control will provide micro chip identification for a discounted fee of $10, and rabies vaccinations for $7. Animal Control can also provide a dog license while you wait.

Bring the entire family, and come enjoy this Spectacular Event! (Only Special Needs Animals will be allowed inside the Community Center). Call 871-7307 for more information.
