'PSL HISTORY' FEATURES RETIRED COMMUNITY RELATIONS DIRECTOR NINA BARANSKI

PORT ST. LUCIE, FLA. – August 1, 2007 – On this month's episode of "PSL History," Mayor Patricia P. Christensen talks to Nina Baranski, retired director of the city's Community Relations Department.

Baranski, who moved to Port St. Lucie from Miramar in 1968, tells first-hand stories about the city's early days, the first elected City Council, the beginning of PSL-TV20 and more.

This month's episode will air on the following dates and times:

- Thursday, August 2 — 10 a.m., 4 p.m.
- Friday, August 3 — 7 a.m., 7 p.m.
- Saturday, August 4 — 3 a.m., 3 p.m.

Mayor Patricia P. Christensen talks to retired Community Relations Director Nina Baranski about the start-up of Port St. Lucie's PSL-TV20 during the July taping of "PSL History."

The program is a partnership between the city's Communications Department and the Port St. Lucie Historical Society to create an archive of video memories from people who witnessed the events that helped make the city what it is today.

"PSL History" is broadcast throughout Port St. Lucie on the city's government-access cable TV channel, PSL-TV20. The channel is available to customers of Comcast and Hometown Cable Plus, and is streamed LIVE over the Internet from the City's Web site at www.cityofpsl.com. PSL-TV20 earned the City Manager's 2006 Significant Achievement Award.
